

Veni, vidi, vici—in a horn.

Thank God the agony is over.

Garfield can breathe more easy now.

Our Democratic cock is a nest in a tree this week.

Grand did not vote for Garfield as he said he would.

The next United States Senate, will stand Democrats 39, Republicans 37.

"The melancholy days have come the saddest of the year."

Pull down the blinds, these bright nights, girls, there is a man in the moon.

It is rumored on the streets that some kind of an election was held last week.

Of all sad words of tongue or pen, the saddest are these: we might have carried New York.

The Glasgow Times is fairly humming under the editorial management of Dr. Jno. D. Woods.

The only issue of the late campaign was that of sectionalism, the solid North against the solid South.

Now that the political campaign is over, let us turn our attention to matrimony and such things.

His Fraudulence says we must all thank God on the 25th that the country has gone to — well Republican headquarters.

The latest joke of the season is perpetrated by the Evening Post. It nominates Hancock for President in 1884.

The Tennessee Legislature stands as follows. Senate, 15 Democrats and 10 Republicans; House, 33 Democrats, 36 Republicans and 1 Greenbacker.

The Fleming County Gazette, is the name of a 24 column Republican sheet just started at Flemingsburg, Ky., by Lennagh & McCartney, and edited by Chas. D. McCartney.

Wednesday morning the rain began to fall and it has rained the greater part of the time since. It seems that Heaven is weeping over the degradation of the country.

A man in Winchester who had been married twenty years became a father for the first time the other day. It is a pity that trouble should overtake him in his old age.

The Greenback vote in this county, is only 458 against 747 last year, a decrease of 281 and yet you can find men who say it is the future great party, the party of promise and progression.

"Kiss me Darling, the old man's blind," is a new song by Will. S. Hays, just out. It is said to be as sweet as the double distilled nectar of the gods. We are willing to take the part of "Darling" in rehearsing it with our Irish.

Tom Bach, of Garrard county, was fined $100 the other day for kissing a Harrodsburg girl on the street. He was on a high. Probably he had been drinking Kirschen. Rather expensive osculatory exercise for these hard times.

Thanksgiving day comes this year on the 25th inst. Democrats, have very little to be thankful for unless it is that it is the last proclamation of the kind that will be made by the present fraudulent occupant of the White House.

And Jno. D. White the obstreperous mountaineer has got back to Congress again. Without a Democratic speaker to sit down on him he will be a howling wolf from Dittie Creek. This misfortune to the State is the "most unkind cut of all."

The papers will now endeavor to explain how it was done. After thinking it over carefully we have come to the conclusion that the defeat was owing to one of two causes. It was either because Garfield got the most electoral votes or because Hancock did not get enough to elect him.

Ulysses S. Grant Jr, who was killed about a month ago by Miss Flood, of San Francisco, was married November 1st to Miss Fannie J. Chaffee, only child of Jerome B. Chaffee ex-Senator of Colorado. It did not take him long to recover from the effects of a broken heart.

The Evening Post moves, since John D. White is elected to Congress, that Polk Johnson be elected Clerk of that body, upon the ground that "there are other considerations that outweigh party politics." He needs some one to keep him straight and Polk is the man to do it.

The suggestion of the Henderson Reporter that a business meeting of the Press of this district be held meets with our hearty concurrence. As the suggestion was made first at Henderson we would propose Henderson as the place and some time about the first of December as the time. Every paper should be represented and much good might be accomplished by taking united action with reference to matters of business.

GONE UP.

THE DEMOCRATIC PLUM GOES DOWN.

A Republican Tidal Wave—President Congress and all.

Necessary to elect, 185.

Hancock carries the solid South with New Jersey and Nevada. New York goes for Garfield by 20,000 majority, and this therefore defeats Hancock. With it he would have 185, exactly enough. The Democrats are claiming that 40,000 more votes were cast than there were voters in the State, according to the late census, and will probably contest. The Republicans will have a minority of 2 in the Senate and a working majority in the House over both Democrats and Greenbackers. Hawkins (Rep.) is elected Governor of Tennessee by 10,000 majority over Wright, and Wilson's beaten by 30,000. California and Oregon were very close showing that the Morey letter got in its work. The Republican majorities in these States will not exceed 500. Iowa gives the largest Republican majority, 80,000. Texas gives 70,000 Democratic majority. Hancock has a majority of the popular vote.

Kentucky.

There has been a change of one in the Kentucky representation. Jno. D. White the "Gentleman from Clay" who raised such a racket in the Legislature last winter has defeated Tom Turner in the Ninth district by about 1000 votes. This is a great misfortune to the party in the State, and to the people of that district especially. The representation in Congress is now as follows:

First Dis. Oscar Turner, Ind. Dem. Second Dis. Jas. A. McKenzie, Dem. Third Dis. Jno. W. Caldwell, Dem. Fourth Dis. J. Proctor Knott, Dem. Fifth Dis. A. S. Willis, Dem. Sixth Dis. J. G. Carlisle, Dem. Seventh Dis. J. C. Blackburn, Dem. Eighth Dis. Phil. B. Thompson, Dem. Ninth Dis. Jno. D. White, Rep. Tenth Dis. E. C. Phifer, Dem.

The representation is unchanged except in the Ninth district. The vote of the State is considerable smaller than Tilden's. Hancock's majority will probably not exceed 40,000.

Garfield unlike Hayes, is a man of great ability, and will go into office with a majority of the electoral votes, however corruptly those votes may have been obtained. He is a dishonest man and an unscrupulous politician and the four years of his administration will be a dangerous epoch to the country.

Grant's friends are claiming that he won the Republican victory. He canvassed New York State, making short speeches and exhibiting himself, and now he is held up as the "great and only American orator."

The most eminent philosophers and the petty dancing masters are all classed under the same title of Professor. The title of orator is likewise abused.

Wilson and his fellow bolters in Tennessee, should be consigned to the shades of eternal infamy for electing a Republican Governor in that State. They are destitute of the least spark of patriotism and should be branded as traitors and driven forth, as exiles from the respect of all true Democrats. The people of Tennessee should condemn them with the curse of Cain and look upon them as Benedict Arnolds in the Democratic camp.

"Oh for a tongue to curse the slave, Whose treason like a deadly plague, Comes o'er the councils of the brave, And blasts them in their hour of might."

All the talk about an Empire with Grant at the head is sheer nonsense. Grant's most determined enemies are in his own party. He will never be President again. He failed this year when he had just circumnavigated the globe as a hero and had come back with his name on the lips of friends and foes. There are many ambitious and able men in his party, each with his following and these will never allow Grant to be President again. The talk of an Empire is all stuff. We do not believe the Republican party itself would stand such a thing. There are many patriotic men in the Republican party, and these would resist, with all lovers of liberty, any attempt to destroy the Republic.

Repulsed, not Beaten.

The result of the election last week was not a surprise to us. A combination of circumstances made Hancock's defeat a foregone conclusion.

We presented the case to our readers last week as one greatly in doubt, with the chances in favor of Garfield. Our course was censured by some as being discouraging to the party when confidence was most needed. However as a faithful chronicler of the news we deemed it to be our duty to give the status of the political outlook as it really was, according to our ideas. The crash was therefore dreaded if not expected, and it has come, accomplished its work and the Democratic party yet lives. It is true the blow was a severe one but we must expect to receive frequent repulses before we win the final victory. Our enemies are claiming that the party is disintegrated and its death a foregone conclusion. We have lost in the East but gained in the West and the South remains as solid as a stone wall. The West will unite with the South; it is only a question of time. She has almost thrown off her Republican shackles by one mighty effort, when all the chance was against her. One more battle and her victory will be complete. Gallant little Nevada joins the Democratic column and the other western States have had their majorities reduced from thousands to hundreds. The paltry Republican plurality of fifteen, 1,000 in Oregon and Cal. still in doubt shows that the Democratic party is destined to be the dominant party in the West. Hancock carried nineteen, or just half of the States and will have a large majority of the popular vote. Does this look like the party is dead? The direct cause of this disaster to the Democrats is attributable to Republican money and election frauds. This can't be helped now.

This and the fear of a change by the business men of the country has caused our defeat. The election of a Democratic President was regarded by them as an experiment that might work harm to their business interests. It should be borne in mind that the present prosperity of the country was brought about by the judicious administration of public affairs by a Democratic Congress. The tariff question was used against us in the East. We believe this to be the great issue of the next campaign, free trade against protection. But the main cause of the disastrous result was the sectional issue. The bloody-shirt orators of the North made this the stock in trade of their speeches and excited the fears and prejudices of many of the so-called Democrats of the North, who deserted to the enemy frightened by the bugbear of a "Solid South."

Our plume has gone down but the victory of our enemies is dearly bought. This defeat will only serve to nerve us to the contest of the future. We can see what family quarrels and dissensions have brought us to and profit by our past severe experience. A few years of unchecked Republican rule will be enough to satisfy the people. The Democratic party will still live and it cannot be annihilated. It may be crushed to the dust for awhile, but phoenix like it will rise again from its own ashes and be stronger than ever. Let not Democrats be cast down. While we have half of Congress and half of the States and a majority of the popular vote there is no need to give up. A new set of party leaders will soon succeed the present old fogies and a better organization must be formed and we must begin early for the next struggle. With new issues new men and growing strength in the West we can yet succeed and "faith we'll do it."

THANKSGIVING DAY.

The President Names Nov. 25th as the day of Thanksgiving.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The following is the President's proclamation:

By the President of the United States of America, a proclamation.

At no period in his history since the United States became a nation has this people had so abundant and so universal reasons for joy and gratitude at the favor of Almighty God, or been subjected so profound a humiliation to give thanks for his loving kindness and humbly implore his continued care and protection. Health, wealth and prosperity throughout all our borders; peace, honor and friendship with all the world; firm and faithful adherence by the great body of our population to the principles of liberty and justice, which have made our greatness as a nation, and to the wise institutions and strong frame of government and society which will perpetuate for all these and for all the future the blessings of our country.

I therefore recommend that on Thursday, the 25th day of November next, the people meet in their respective places of worship to make acknowledgments to Almighty God for his bounties and his protection and to offer to Him prayer for their continuance.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington, this 31st day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and fifth.

By the President, R. B. HAYES.

W. M. EVARTS, Secretary of State.

The largest trees in the world are in California; the tallest in Australia; An official of the forest department in Victoria, Australia, measured and found since a fallen eucalyptus in Gippsland and found that it was four hundred and thirty-five feet long from the root to the highest point of branches. But even this is exceeded by another eucalyptus still standing in the Camden district in Victoria, which is estimated to be four hundred and fifty feet from the ground to the top.

MADE BY THE USE OF DR. RAGLAND'S "Lightning Relief."

HOVNSVILLE, TENN., Nov. 20, 1878.

Dr. J. H. Ragland, Jackson, Tenn. Dear Sir:—I desire to express to you my grateful feelings for the speedy and permanent cure your celebrated Lightning Relief afforded me in a case of severe Rheumatism.

The pain was so severe in my ankle and knee that I could not stand flat-footed. I bought a bottle of your medicine for fifty cents, and that night rubbed the parts according to directions. The next morning the pain and stiffness were all gone, and I could walk as usual. I have had no return since, though it has been 4 months ago.

Very respectfully, H. B. POLK.

I wish to state, for the benefit of those who suffer with Rheumatism, that I have suffered with this wretched disease in the most violent form, for two months, and had been treated by the best medical men in Jackson, without obtaining any relief. I procured a bottle of your celebrated Lightning Relief, and it cured me in five minutes, and that night rubbed the parts according to directions. The next morning the pain and stiffness were all gone, and I could walk as usual. I have had no return since, though it has been 4 months ago.

Very respectfully, H. B. POLK.
